IN CHARGE OF ARMORY.
Jean B. Paulhus Succeeds James L. Cochrane, Resigned.

Jean B. Paulhus of this city has been appointed to take charge of the state armory on Pleasant street, in place of James L. Cochrane, who has resigned. Mr. Paulhus is well qualified for the duties, having served for several years in Company E, Third regiment, Connecticut National Guard, filling non-commissioned offices of the company and also that of lieutenant and captain. He enlisted in Company E, May 27, 1897, was appointed corporal June 7, 1899; commissioned second lieutenant July, 1899; chosen captain Dec. 28, 1899; resigned from the service, Oct. 20, 1900. During the Spanish-American war Captain Paulhus served nine months with Company E, Third Connecticut Volunteers. Mr. Cochrane has entered the employ of the American Thread company. He enlisted as member of Company L, Feb. 14, 1913, and was promoted to corporal March 8, 1913, promoted to sergeant Nov. 12, 1913, and to second lieutenant Dec. 3, 1913. Feb. 17, 1914, he received his appointment as quartermaster sergeant Q. M. Corps.

Reception for Pastor Planned.
At the monthly meeting of the Sunday school board of the Methodist church George H. Hall was elected superintendent of the Sunday school, and Walter E. Lydall assistant superintendent. The matter of enlarging the primary room of the school was deferred until the next meeting. It is planned to hold a reception for the new pastor, Rev. R. S. Moore at the church Wednesday evening, April 19. All the organizations of the church will take part. The presidents of the organizations will meet after the morning service Sunday to make arrangements.

Enters Hospital.
Edward Brookman of Jackson place was admitted to St. Joseph's hospital and to second treatment pending an operation for appendicitis.

Farce by Students at Normal School.
The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife, a comedy farce, was given by the students of the Normal school Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the school gymnasium. The little sketch was under the direction of Prof. Staebner. It was the story of a man who married a dumb wife and who engaged a doctor to see if he could not make her able to talk. He did so and the result was that she talked too much to suit her husband. He wanted the doctor to make her dumb again but the doctor couldn't do so and as the next best thing he made the husband deaf so he couldn't hear his wife talk. There were a great many very amusing situations. The part of the husband was taken by Prof. Staebner and that of the wife by Miss Edith Paschal of the faculty. The other characters of lawyer, doctor, servants, vendors were taken by students. This play was given as a type of the plays given in Shakespeare's time.

OBITUARY.
Mrs. Eugene Sullivan.
Mrs. Bridget Sullivan, widow of Eugene Sullivan, died Wednesday night at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday night at St. Joseph's hospital, where she had been a patient for four weeks. She was born in Kerry, Ireland, and had been a resident of Willimantic for 50 years. She is survived by one son, Jeremiah Sullivan of the firm of Brick & Sullivan. The body was removed to the home of her son at 23 Turner street.

FUNERAL.
Joseph La Porte Dore.
The funeral of Joseph La Porte Dore was held from the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. Harley E. Thompson of Barreville Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Leonard Smith of Spring Hill Baptist church officiated. The body will be taken to Mystic today for burial in Elm Grove cemetery. Arrangements were in charge of Funeral Director Jay M. Shepard.

Leon Haden's Eye Injured.
Leon Haden, an employee of the L. M. Hartson company, met with a painful accident Thursday morning while at work at a saw. A piece flew from the saw against Haden's right eye. He was brought to the office of a local physician where the injury was treated.

William P. Nichols Dead.
Word was received in this city on Thursday morning of the death of William P. Nichols of New London. Mr. Nichols was well known here, having worked for the local exchange of the Southern New England Telephone company. He was elected secretary to New London where he has since been employed by the company.

PLAINFIELD
Third Collection for British-American Relief Fund $31—Total Amount to Date $71.50—William Bouley's Hand Painfully Cut.

The third collection of the Plainfield branch of the British-American Relief fund was received, which brings the fund up to $71.50. This money is being raised to buy comforts and uniforms for the allied soldiers. The money collected by these branch organizations is sent to the head office, Fifth avenue, New York. The money obtained by the collections is spent in the United States States to buy the needs and comforts of the soldiers and therefore helps our own, not the foreign manufacturers.

The treasurer, Zeck Tellow, states that the collection for the week ending April 8, was $21, amount previously acknowledged $49.50, collection $21, Thomas Marsland $5, a Well Wisher, $5, total to date $71.50.

From the outbreak of the war, a large number of people here, especially the English people, have donated freely for the help of the soldiers fighting for the allies.

Collections were taken up here among many of the men which were spent for tobacco for the soldiers. For each dollar which was contributed here a large tobacco concern in London.

WHAT WEAK WOMEN NEED
We Have It In a Remedy Containing the Three Oldest and Most Famous Tonics Known.

Vinol contains the three oldest and most famous tonics known to medicine, viz., the medicinal extractives of fresh cod livers, without oil, papotone of iron and beef peptone.

That is why Vinol is such a wonderful remedy for weak, run-down persons, feeble old people, delicate children, and to restore strength after sickness. Read the following testimony:

Savannah, Ga. "I was weak, nervous, run-down, had no appetite, and could not sleep. I had tried medicine without any benefit, and one day the nurse asked me to try Vinol. I did so and it made me feel like a new woman. It has restored my strength and I can do all my own housework. I would not take anything for the good Vinol has done me." Sarah White.

We return money in every case where Vinol fails to benefit the purchaser. G. G. Engler, Broadway Pharmacy, Norwich.

England, would give $2 worth of tobacco. For their contributions, the people here received cards from different parts of the war zone, all of which expressed thanks for the generosity of the townspeople.

Those wishing to contribute to this fund address the Secretary of the Plainfield Branch, N. E. Oldham, Plainfield, Conn., Box 34.

William Bouley Injured.
William Bouley was painfully cut Thursday afternoon while at work in the No. 2 third room of the Barton mill. He slipped, and in endeavoring to obtain his balance thrust his hand into the gears of his machine, receiving a severe cut. His wound was dressed by Dr. Arthur Chace.

Short Paragraphs.
Work has begun at Central Village for the foundation of the addition to be built onto the Central Worsted company's plant.

A vast improvement was made when a new stone foundation was laid at the junction of Railroad avenue and the small alley in the post office. This place formerly was a very bad one for teams or automobiles to turn into. Now the place is in first class condition. The work was done by John Newton and John Kellins.

Repairs are being made on the high school building at Central Village.

A choir rehearsal was held at St. John's church Thursday evening.

Cottolene

"The Natural Shortening"

How to make the best doughnuts you ever tasted

A really good doughnut is one of the choicest delicacies that can be set upon a table.

Doughnuts shortened with and fried in Cottolene have an appetizing flavor and a wholesome goodness that cannot be equaled.

Cottolene is a real aid to digestion. Hence doughnuts that are made in accordance with the accompanying recipe not only look tempting and taste good, but can be eaten with thorough enjoyment by any one.

Doughnuts
To a pint of risen bread dough work in a cup of sugar beaten with two eggs and one teaspoon of melted Cottolene. Mix a little nutmeg or cinnamon with one-fourth cup flour; add this and enough more flour to make a stiff dough. Roll and cut and let rise for half hour. Then fry in deep hot Cottolene.

This is true of all foods prepared with Cottolene, the Natural Shortening.

Arrange with your grocer for a regular supply. Pails of convenient sizes.

DEMENTED MAN SHOOT
BRIDGEPORT RESTAURATEUR
Accused Victim of Having Drugged and Robbed Him of $700.

Bridgeport, April 13.—Charles Louis, a clerk of this city, is at St. Vincent hospital today in a serious condition as the result of a shooting affray in which he sustained a bullet wound in the right temple and Harry Walters, a steam fitter from Pottsville, Pa., who said he was on way to board with Mrs. Macosky, of North Main street, Waterbury, is held without bonds, charged with attempted murder.

Walters entered a restaurant on Water street this afternoon and accused the proprietor of having drugged and robbed him of $700 some time ago. He then pulled out a revolver and began to shoot. The proprietor escaped but Louis received a bullet in the head. Walters is believed to be demented.

Bridgeport.—The annual convention of the Fairfield County Teachers' association will be held in the auditorium of the Bridgeport high school Friday, May 5.
